INFIRMARY

FOR THE BLIND!

DR. W. A. HOOTEN

HAS REMOVED HIS INFIRMARY FOR THE Blind from Cotton Hill, Ga., to Atlanta, Ga., where he has located permanently. He is now prepared to treat diseases of the Eye successfully, and will give his personal attention to all cases presented. He has been a practicing physician eighteen years. He relieves almost all cases without the knife. He has been blind three years himself, and after having exhausted, as he thought, the skill of the profession, both North and South, became in possession of a treatment by which he was soon restored to sight. He uses the same treatment with which he himself was relieved, and has restored a great many persons from total blindness. He knows of no Oculist in the United States who uses the same treatment. He also treats Chronic Diseases in all forms, particularly diseases of Females, Venereal troubles of long standing, Dropsies, Liver Complaints, Coughs, etc.

Terms for treatment, CASH.

INFIRMARY—Large two story brick building on corner of Baker and Collins streets.

To remove from the minds of the most scrupulous any prejudices that may arise, he refers the public to the following first class names, giving the Post office address of each, and proposes that for proof that any of the certificates herein published by him are not genuine, or that these cures were not effected by him as herein stated, to pay to the order of the individual producing said proof the sum of Five Thousand Dollars.

CERTIFICATES.

To the Blind:

Go to Dr. Hooten, at Cotton Hill, Clay county, Ga., and be cured. If possible to have your eyes restored, he can and will do it. My daughter lost her eye sight suddenly of Amaurosis. I had almost despaired of her ever being restored, but on hearing of Dr. Hooten, I immediately placed my daughter under his treatment, and in a short time she was entirely restored, and can now see as well as she ever could at any time. Do not delay, but go at once to Dr. Hooten, and be cured. His treatment is harmless. If he does you no good, he will do you no harm. My daughter and I can not find words sufficient to express our gratitude to Dr. Hooten.

This certificate I give cheerfully, earnestly hoping it may prove a benefit to the blind, and also to my much esteemed friend, Dr. Hooten.

Very respectfully, WILLIAM SMITHA.

Eufaula, Ala., June 1st, 1867.

SMITHVILLE, GA., May 31, 1867.

To Persons Afflicted with Sore Eyes:

I feel it my duty to Dr Hooten, and to those of our good people who are troubled with diseases of the eye, to say that, after suffering four years with Chronic Inflammatory Sore Eyes, and after applying to a large number of most eminent physicians without obtaining any kind of relief I was relieved of blindness, all soreness of the eyes, and may say, entirely cured within two weeks of treatment by Dr. Hooten. I can cheerfully say further, that his treatment is mild, and most certainly harmless, if not beneficial. I would like to pay Dr. Hooten the debt of gratitude I owe him for the almost miraculous cure of my blindness, and give this certificate gratuitously, hoping that it may be of some benefit to him, and also to suffering humanity. Respectfully,

THOS. W. JOHNSON,
Prop. of Eating House, Smithville, Ga.

For the benefit of those suffering with Sore Eyes and in justice to Dr. Hooten, I will state that I took my wife to Dr. Hooten, on the 7th of May, 1866, entirely blind—the result of a very high degree of Inflammation of the Eyes. She commenced improving very soon under his treatment, and continued to improve rapidly until quite restored to sight. On the 15th day of July following, she returned home with her sight entirely restored, without the slightest inflammation about her eyes perceptible. I feel safe in recommending Dr. Hooten to every one suffering with their eyes. Dr. Hooten is a Georgian by birth and education, and deserves the confidence to which he is so much entitled.

S. S. DUNLAP,
Firm of Morgan & Dunlap, Macon, Ga.

July 25th, 1866.

I placed myself under treatment of Dr. Hooten in August, 1866. When I arrived at Dr. Hooten's I could not discern a ray of light—was entirely blind of Amaurosis, and one-half of me paralised. After three months' treatment Dr. Hooten, my paralysis was removed, and my sight entirely restored. I can now enjoy the light of day in peace and happiness—can perform my daily labor on a farm as before my affliction. Respectfully,

S. L. SANDERLIN.

Dover, Ga., Feb. 15, 1869.

To those Troubled with Diseased Lungs, as Coughs, etc

I had long been troubled with a cough, considered by many to have consumption. On calling Dr. Hooten to see me he readily detected the cause of my cough, and cut into my lung. From the incision made by him there was discharged at least a quart of pus daily, for eight months in succession. He restored me to perfect health, except that lung does not act well. I can now labor as hard as I ever did. If your cough is severe it will pay you well to take treatment of Dr. Hooten.

Respectfully, JAMES HARDMAN.

Cotton Hill, Ga., Jan. 1, 1868.

I herein certify that I had not seen a day's health in ten years before taking treatment of Dr. Hooten, because of a chronic affection of the liver. I became greatly troubled with Dropsy—could feel the water shake in me every step I took. In four days of treatment from Dr. Hooten, I was entirely relieved of the Dropsy. He never strange it may appear, it nevertheless is true.

I would certainly advise all persons troubled with Dropsy to give Dr Hooten a trial.

Respectfully, SAMUEL R. PINCKSTON.

☞ The Cubans have organized a government and elected Cespedes President.

☞ The Spanish Government is to be a monarchy.

☞ The Baltimore Statesman says that one of the worst results of Radicalism is the loss of Southern statesmanship to the country.

The third day's session. Reports show 250 students in Theological Seminaries; 20 Missionaries are laboring abroad. No child can be baptized unless one of its parents or its guardian is pious.

Georgia News.

THE steam mill and shops of W. L. Keough & Co., in Washington, Wilkes Co., were burned on Sunday. Loss $5,000. No insurance.

BLOSTER FODGETT.—GOVERNOR OF UTAH.—We take great pleasure in announcing to the readers of the Chronicle and Sentinel that the removal of our distinguished little fellow-citizen from the office of Postmaster at this city, was not done by President Grant for the purpose of disgracing him (as was erroneously believed by the Ku Klux here;) but, on the contrary, for the purpose of elevating him to a higher and more important position—one where his great talents and great virtues would find a finer field for display than their owner has heretofore enjoyed. It was the current rumor on the streets yesterday that the "L. P." had been appointed by the President Governor of the Territory of Utah, the country of the Mormons. The inmates of the Governor's Seraglio, which he of course will possess when he reaches Salt Lake City, have not yet, we understand, been selected; but we suppose he will hardly slight his native city in this matter, and Augusta's dusky daughters need not fear being slighted.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

COL. ISHAM FANNIN, of Morgan county, has taken charge as Revenue Collector for the 3d District, vice Will D. Bard.—Ibid.

MRS. ADKINS the wife of Joseph Adkins has been arrested by the civil authorities of Warren county charged with the murder of her husband. She was near her husband when he was shot, but denies knowing who did it.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

A NEGRO woman in Athens, Georgia, has been arrested for stealing good clothes in which to be baptised.

THE Madison Farm Journal gives a gratifying account of the rapid improvement of that place. Frost was visible the 20th, in Morgan county. All grains are doing finely. Cotton on the red soil is doing well; on the grey lands, poorly; on the whole there is prospect of good crop. The town of Rutledge bids fair to be a city.

TRY IT AGAIN—MORE SLANDER BUBBLES BURSTED.—The Conservative Ku-Klux Radical who is running The Tribune's Slander Mill in Atlanta is respectfully referred to the following:

ATLANTA, GA., May 7.—The "Tribune's" special says Radford C. Robades, a prominent Republican of Warren county, was killed at his residence near Warrenton, on Wednesday night. Letters from that vicinity report continued outrages by prowling bands of the Ku-Klux.

There it is gentlemen. Now do your duty. Hunt up Mr. Robades' residence and you will find Mr. Robades. If he was killed he has never been buried but is still on terra firma and should be looked after, and when you find him give us a detailed report of where he came from, where he lived and how he died—anything to establish the fact that any one by that name ever lived in Warren or adjoining counties. We will publish it as information, "free gratis for nothing."—Warrenton Clipper.

THE Clipper says that the military are still in Warren, but is ignorant of the why and wherefore. The soldiers are quiet. It has heard of no effort by the troops to ferret out the Adkins matter.

THE house of the Rev. C. A. Irwin, of the 2d Baptist Church, Macon, was robbed by two negroes.

PRESIDENT GRANT and Secretary Fish do not disagree on the Alabama question.

UNDER the eight hour law full pay for ten hours' work is to be drawn.

☞ A junior student at the Cornell University, in rendering an account to his father of his last term's expenses, entered an item, "Charity, $30." His father wrote back, "I fear that 'charity' covers a multitude of sins."

Still Another Slander Exploded! —The N. Y. Tribune Requested to Copy.

We give first, Edwin Belcher's letter, announcing the killing of Stone, and of the negro that knew who killed Adkins, with Belcher's cheerful comments and amiable suggestions thereon:

AUGUSTA, GA., May 14, 1869.

Dear Sir: The work of death continues in Georgia. Since my last letter two more colored men have fallen victims of Rebel hate and treachery. A colored man that knew the cowardly villain that killed Senator Adkins was indiscreet enough to state that he knew the party, and he paid for it with his life last Tuesday night, at Thompson, in Columbia county, about 37 seven miles from this city, on the Georgia Railroad.

The other man, an expelled member of the Legislature by the name of Alexander Stone, was killed at his home in Jefferson county, where old man Benjamin Ayer was killed a few weeks ago. I have this from undoubted authority, and yet we are told that Georgia is legally reconstructed, and all is quiet from the mountains to the sea.

If there is a God in Israel His vengeance cannot sleep forever. The blood of men who were slain for no other cause than they were trying to elevate a poor degraded race out of the dark abyss in which an inhuman servitude had left them, cry out to the nation for protection to the living. Every murder is saddled upon some poor ignorant colored man.

The rebel papers continue their malicious tirades against me. Personally I care nothing for their abuse, but it arouses the evil passions of the murderers that infest my district against my assistants.

I learn from good authority that the Legislature at its next session intends to impeach Governor Bullock, and in order to do that they will have to have a majority in the State Senate. That may throw some light upon the death of Senator Adkins.

It Congress does not interfere in our behalf every loyal man in Georgia that can get away will become an exile. Rev. Mr. Spilman, an elder in the Northern Methodist Church, was mobbed in a hotel at Waynesboro', thirty-two miles from this city, Sunday evening last, and only escaped with his life by the aid of some colored men who secreted him. What are we to do? I have no fears about myself, but it is terrible in the country.

Your obedient servant,
EDWIN BELCHER.

We now follow with Belcher's letter to the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel of Sunday, pronouncing his statements of fact in the above letter untrue. And our cotemporary will pardon us for saying that his strictures upon this retraction of Belchers seem to us too harsh. It is a rare matter these days to find among the party of Moral Ideas any one who will rectify an error. These strictures are certainly not calculated to encourage such retractions in the future. Let Belcher as our cotemporary suggests write this retraction to Forney and Sumner. And further, let him give us the names of those parties in Augusta who wilfully imposed upon him. It is due to the Southern people that these secret defamers, these hireling falsehood fabricators, should be discovered.

Letter from Belcher.

Messrs. Editors: My attention has been called to a private letter written by myself to Senator Sumner, and published in the Washington Chronicle of May 19th. The letter was not intended for publication, but I believed the statements to be true when it was written. I have learned since writing the letter that I was misinformed, and, I believe, willfully imposed upon by certain persons in this city who knew that I sometimes corresponded with Mr. Sumner. I believed that Mr. Stone and the other party mentioned had been killed, and incensed at the account of the murder of these men, whom I supposed had been killed for political reasons, I wrote as I did. I have been informed to-day, by a responsible gentleman, that both Mr. Stone and the other person mentioned are now alive, and I desire to correct the statements made in the letter alluded to above; for I would not intentionally misrepresent the people of my native section. The statement in reference to the press was an allusion to an article that appeared in the Hancock Journal, about myself, and did not refer to any other papers in the State. The statement about Mr. Spilman was made to me by that gentleman himself.

I regret that the letter was published, but, as I have before stated, I believed every word to be true when it was written. By publishing this letter you will confer a favor upon yours, Respectfully,
EDWIN BELCHER.

Thus, one by one, do these slanders upon the South fall detected to the ground Stone still lives, and, disgusted with Radicalism, works with his old mistress in Jefferson county.

Spilman's outrage was a canard. Maul and Speer are not afraid to go home. ——— is afraid to go home because of his Don Juan embroglios. Radford C. Rhodes never had an existence.

Thus the slanders are shivered in detail.

Will the Washington Chronicle and New York Tribune publish these conclusive refutations of the injurious untruths they have been the instruments of circulating? We wait to see.

GEORGIA TO BE PUT UNDER MARTIAL LAW.—The Tribune states that Secretary Rawlins is determined to secure protection to the lives of Union men in the South. He will probably declare martial law in Georgia, at least in the neighborhoods where these murders have been committed and where the murderers are not given up, will arrest a number of sympathizing citizens and hold them as hostages until the criminals are given up.

☞ General Butler was taking tea at the house of a lady friend in Washington the other day. The General seemed to look as though something was lacking, and the following dialogue took place: Hostess—"Can it be possible, General, that you have no spoon?" Butler (rising indignantly and holding out both hands—"No, madam; if you don't believe you can search me?"

THE GIRL OF THE PERIOD NOWHERE.—The Lancaster (Missouri) Excelsior knows of a girl in Schuyler county, who, "one night last summer, attended a ball, danced all night, went home in the morning, got breakfast, dinner, and supper for ten harvest hands, did two weeks' washing and the milking, made a calico dress, practised her music lesson, went blackberrying, gathered a gallon, walked to town in the evening to attend a concert, and walked home again before bed time.

REMOVED.—The pictures of Generals Lee and Stonewall Jackson, that formerly hung in the Council Chamber, have been removed by the new powers that be, and will be replaced by pictures of Generals Grant and Sherman.—Charleston Courier.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Gen. Grant departed for Annapolis to-day.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Dr. Bealty, of the Old School Presbyterian Committee, in addressing the New School Committee, which was to receive them, amid great applause, said: "This will probably be the last time the assemblies will be called upon to interchange civilities, inasmuch as in the future they both will be one." The remark elicited spontaneous applause.

PARIS, May 25.—The election so far returns 193 for the Government; opposition 90. The opposition has lost the corps legislatiff. Theirs has been defeated.

LONDON, May 25.—The Press continues better in its tone on the Alabama claims. The article in the Standard, (tory) bitterly assails the Radicals for addressing the Americans in language of affection and admiration. The flattery with which the Americans have been besmeared, are the causes of their present menacing attitude. No man, with English blood in his veins, should deal with Mr. Sumner's speech in such a feeble and unmanly strain. America had been deceived into the belief that England would meekly endure the insult and submit to chastisement, and had all but committed itself. A message addressed to such a nation as England, could only be answered by a challenge.

America remembers the plain facts of the late war, and cannot be humbugged into the belief that the talk of the English people of the subjugation of the South. Such assertion made the Americans believe England is telling lies to escape from a thrashing. We were never guilty of the meanness of denying the sympathy we entertained in order to escape the displeasure of a successful party. The educated class who sympathized with the South are the nation, the masses are only their followers.

CIRCULATION IS UNACCEPTED.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA::::::::MAY 26

☞ Our California exchanges of the 8th, reached us to-day.

☞ Bishop Simpson is out for Woman's Suffrage.

☞ The Mobile Register suggests that the South sell her cotton in Europe, so as to get the gold it brings for herself.

CORRECTION.—We are informed that the rumor of the arrest of Mrs. Adkins for the murder of her husband, Jos. Adkins, is untrue.

THE REPUTATION STILL GOES ON.—THE SLANDER MILL CHOKED BY ITS OWN FALSEHOODS.—Mr. John Neal, of Warren, whose name is mentioned in "Radicals" card to the Macon Telegraph, as one of the refugees in Atlanta, afraid to go home for his political opinions, pronounces the statement an unmitigated falsehood, as far as he is concerned. He has just come from home, and was treated kindly there. He also says the charge is untrue about Gardner.

EIGHTH GEORGIA RE-UNION.—The Macon Telegraph says that it has received suggestions from a prominent source, that it might be politically imprudent to hold the proposed Eighth Georgia Re-union on the 21st of July; and that it would be better to postpone it to a later day.

It is possible that it might be misrepresented, and if there is such a possibility, we concur with our contemporary that it is well to sacrifice personal considerations to the public welfare. We hold that a very grave duty rests upon our people to avoid anything that can be distorted to our disadvantage by our enemies.

We shall defer in this matter to the views of a majority of those interested.

The Cuban Revolution.

This movement seems speeding to a successful end. A Government has been organized with Cespedes for President. The Insurgents under the lead of this sagacious general, have managed the matter very handsomely, both in remedying their own weakness, using to the utmost their few resources, and improving the errors of their adversaries. The Spanish troops were well organized and well armed. The Cubans were numerous, unorganized, and without munitions of war. Avoiding a general battle, retiring before their foe, annoying all they could in light skirmishing, they have worn down the Spanish force, while they have increased in numbers and perfected their organization. Disease has made heavy havoc among the unacclimated Spaniards. Not only this the revolting orders of the Spanish leader, brutally enforced, have embittered the people, and driven numbers to fight against them.

Cespedes has proven himself possessed of the first elements of a soldier. Astute, strategic, patient, calculating, he has managed the hot-blooded Cubans with masterly capacity.

He has been well chosen for the civil head of the new Government. It remains to be seen whether the Spanish Government will retrieve itself. It certainly will have to change its policy, to do so. The matter is not by any means determined, though an auspicious beginning has been made.

England, among her other perplexities, fears very much that Cuba will finally become a part of the United States—a by no means improbable matter, whether the Cubans succeed or not in winning their independence.

Don Piatt.

Newspaperdom is like every other vocation—occasionally some very brilliant follower springs suddenly into very general notoriety, is all the talk, and then gives way for a new celebrity. Some time back a very spicy correspondent under the non de plume of "Mack," was the famous scribbler of the day. His pictures were much sought after. He took to editing, however, and nothing has been heard of him since.

He was replaced by a dashy fellow who writes under the rather romantic signature of Don Piatt, and who is as much, if not more the rage, than Mack ever was.

His letters are sought with avidity, read and quoted, and his sign-manual has arrived at the flattering prestige of being per se supposed to be under something good.

Newspaper corresponding gives a fine margin for brilliant piquancy. The correspondent has a wide range of themes. He is here, there, and everywhere, with the whole world to cull facts and fancies from. He meets strange characters and witnesses queer incidents. He has the best opportunities for seeing all things and people. And if he has close observation, a good sense of the ridiculous, a ready trick of the pen, and some audacity, he can get up taking letters.

Don Piatt seems to have all these qualities. He is filling a gap too, there being a host of dull platitudes in the business who cannot rise above the effervescence of stale beer. He has had the perception to touch upon matters of public interest, and to whack away upon them with a sort of ad captandum raciness that gives relish to whatever he ventilates.

Hitting patent follies, rasping boldly salient evils, and personal enough to be pleasantly acid, he is writing himself into a very wide notoriety.

He has, however, been running almost long enough, if we are to judge by his Bohemian predecessors; and unless he alters the rule, Don Piatt will soon become like "Dosticks," and "Josh Billings," and "Mack," and "Major Jack Downing," and a host of that ilk—a passed-away celebrity.

☞ Grant, who assassinated Pollard in Richmond, has taken to the Opera.

The Supreme Court.

We have made special arrangements to have the decisions of the Supreme Court reported expressly for THE CONSTITUTION, by N. J. Hammond the Supreme Court Reporter in advance of other papers. Those Attorneys and parties to suits, who wish to get these decisions would do well to subscribe with us right away.

ORDER OF CIRCUITS IN THE SUPREME COURT FOR THE JUNE TERM.

The following is the order in which the Circuits will be called at the June term of the Supreme Court:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Pataula, with | 22 | cases. |
| Southwestern, with | 31 | " |
| Middle, with | 6 | " |
| Eastern, with | 3 | " |
| Brunswick, with | 00 | " |
| Southern, with | 00 | " |
| Cherokee, with | 13 | " |
| Blue Ridge, with | 1 | " |
| Tallapoosa, with | 9 | " |
| Atlanta, with | 6 | " |
| Flint, with | 9 | " |
| Northern, with | 8 | " |
| Western, with | 00 | " |
| Chattahoochee, with | 12 | " |
| Macon, with | 7 | " |
| Ocmulgee, with | 3 | " |
| Rome, with | 4 | " |

The Southwestern Bar have petitioned to have the cases from that and the Pataula Circuit transferred, and it is more than probable that an order, on the first day of the Court, will put them at the heel of the docket. In that case, the cases from the Middle Circuit will be called first.

The cases from this Circuit will be taken up in the order of counties as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| DeKalb, | 2 |
| Fulton, | 4 |
| CHEROKEE CIRCUIT. | |
| Bartow, | 4 |
| Catoosa, | 4 |
| Dade, | 1 |
| Murray, | 1 |
| Whitfield, | 3 |
| BLUE RIDGE CIRCUIT. | |
| Fannin, | 1 |
| ROME CIRCUIT. | |
| Chattooga, | 1 |
| Floyd, | 2 |
| Polk, | 1 |

The bar is referred to the 13th, 30th and 33d rules of the Supreme Court, which are strictly enforced, and which require that Bills of Exceptions shall distinctly specify the points of error in the judgment of the Court below, that each Judge and the Reporter shall be furnished by Council for plaintiff in error, with a copy of the Bill of Exceptions, and that Council for both plaintiff and defendant shall furnish each Judge and the Reporter with a statement of the points to be made, together with a list of the authorities upon which they rely.

Our Northern Correspondence.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., May 21.

Mr Editor: Always anxious to hear from the fair and beloved South, and having an opportunity to "scan" for a few moments your very interesting paper—among other articles of its columns my eye chanced to fall upon the name of Miss Mary A. H. Gray, a name that, as is truly said, should even be dear to the hearts of those who love the fallen cause. Having been one of the number who, through the long years of blood and peril, was allied with the South in her struggle to be free, it affords, and ever will be a source of joy to know that there are those who have not forgotten to love and cherish in their memory the kindest recollections of those who fell upon the gory fields of battle while defending their firesides and their sacred rights.

Though my home is far from that land I so much love, yet it ever brings to mind a thousand happy and joyous reminiscences to hear that even amid oppression and gloom, the people of the South are true to themselves and to their God.

We humbly hope the day is, indeed, at hand when a new era is to dawn upon the people of the South—a day when military reign will be at an end, and freedom of speech and press, together with all the rights they enjoyed in days of yore, will be restored to them; and a new song of peace and prosperity be borne upon every breeze from the Potomac to the Gulf of Mexico.

Mothers and fathers be not cast down, the "darkest cloud has a silver lining," the day must and will come when you will be again a prosperous and happy people.

A Perfect Blazer in the Diamond Line—The Biggest Shiner Known—It Adorns an Idol and Fees a Mistress.

The largest diamond in the world fitly surmounts the sceptre of the largest empire. Its history and mystery are great. Tradition mixes with the story, as its meddlesome custom is, but the best authority gives us this as the likeliest version: This precious stone, known to English jewelers as the "Elfingham," and otherwise as the great Orloff diamond, once formed the brilliant eye of an Indian idol. A runaway soldier of the French army, taking the place of a servant in the temple of this idol, watching his French opportunity and, instead of its being recorded of the wane divinity, "He held him with his glittering eye" (after the fashion of "ye ancient mariner") the opposite speedily took place—the soldier turned optician, extracted the eye without due process of surgery—decamped with it to Malabar, and sold it to a sea captain for $14,000. A Jew (there must always be a Jew in this of narration as inevitable as "three solitary horsemen" in that of many initiated James') a Jew, by much craft and $94,000 in hard cash, obtained it from the Captain. An Armenian merchant purchased it from a Jew—history being silent as to figures in this case—and offered it for sale at the court of the great Catherine of Russia, who would fain have driven a bargain for its possession, but the price was exhorbitant and she relinquished the idea. Later, however, Count Orloff, one of her favorites, bought it for $500 000, with the promise of paying yearly $2 000 more, and a patent of nobility to the owner. The gallant Count now made a present of this costly prize to his royal mistress, who had raised him from obscurity and made him the richest of her subjects. So a permanent and worthy place of rest is found for the diamond of many vicisitudes. When one thinks of it all precious stones have various and romantic histories, and if we could get at them, how much of life and romance we might find wrapped up in a "History of Diamonds," for example, fascinating, unwritable volume."—*Russian Cor. THE "RACES" BURY THE HATCHET.—A Young White "Lady" Prepares to Elope with a Negro Servant—The Plot Discovered—The Nigger in Jail—The Girl Locked Up.—Chicago, May 21.—Yestesday, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, whose parents reside in Keokuk, Iowa, but who is here on a visit, attempted to elope to Detroit with her uncle's negro servant. Plan discovered, negro arrested and put in jail, and girl put under a lock and key in her uncle's house, awaiting the arrival of her parents.—New York Democrat.

☞ "Mozes Addums" objects to long-necked women. He says he has observed that where the head is at such a distance from the heart the woman is an unfeeling woman, and the neck is wrinkled.

ANDREW JOHNSON.—While it is true that for the present Mr. Johnson can accomplish nothing by his own influence or exertion, it is not so certain that there will not soon be a brighter prospect for him.—Cor. N. Y. Times.

THE ENTERPRISE OF BALTIMORE—THE BALTIMORE ADVERTISING AGENCY.—We visited, this morning, the Baltimore Advertising Agency at No. 11 Law Buildings, opposite the Record Office, established by Messrs. Griffin & Hoffman. Here at once we were among evidences of their thriving business and wide spread connections in the number of the newspapers in whose columns we found advertisements from this city, contracted for by this firm. There were papers from the pine regions of Maine from the savannahs of the South, from the Pacific as well as the Atlantic coast; in fact, copies of most all of the thriving and widely circulated press of this country. Frequently our merchant friends call upon us and inquire as to the best mediums for outside advertising.—Until within these few months past we have been unable to inform them, now we take pleasure in recommending them to the Agency of Messrs. Griffin & Hoffman, whose representations they can have confidence in, and who will attend promptly to any business entrusted to them. They are the authorized agents of most of the prominent newspapers in the country, and are familiar from old newspaper connections with the best advertising mediums in every section of the country for each branch of business. They contract at publishers' prices, and any one wishing to advertise their business, patent, invention, drug, or enterprise, would economize both time and money by entrusting the matter to this firm. Mr. Griffin, though young in years, is a newspaper veteran, and Mr. Hoffman belongs to one of the most respected families in this city, and is widely known. Baltimore has long needed an enterprise of this kind, and we wish it every success.—Baltimore Commercial, May 7th.

JOSH BILLINGS ON SPRING.—Spring ar the very beautifullest time uv year, ef not more so. Spring ar various, but ef we had nothin' else but spring, it wouldn't be so much so. HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.—This article is the True Secret of beauty. It is what Fashionable Ladies, Actresses and Opera Singers use to produce that cultivated, distingue appearance so much admired in the Circles of Fashion.

It removes all unsightly Blotches, Redness, Freckles, Tan, Sunburn and effects of Spring Winds, and gives to the Complexion a Blooming Purity of transparent delicacy of power. No Lady who values a fine Complexion can do without the Magnolia Balm. 75 cents will buy it of any of our respectable dealers.

FUNNY THING AT MEMPHIS.—Rather an amusing incident occurred during the temporary organization. In the call of States to appoint from each, a member of the Committee on Credentials, Kentucky was omitted. Our Chairman moved that the name of Kentucky be called. This raised a laugh and loud cheers from all parts of the house, which were redoubled, when the Secretary, attempting to apologize, said, "States are coming in so fast it is hard to keep the run of them." Judge Williams promptly replied, "Kentucky happens to be the first born of the Union."—Cor. Kentuckian.

The Pope's Jubilee at Rome.

IMPOSING CATHOLIC CEREMONIAL—EIGHTY THOUSAND KNEELING DEVOTEES.—The Pope, serene, healthy-looking and re-collected, advanced to the high altar, where, after a short preparatory prayer and assuming the sacred vestments, he commenced Mass. The recollection and devotional demeanor of the people was most striking. The Pope's choir sang some exquisite motetts during the Mass. But at the moment of the Elevation the scene was most solemn; 80,000 persons, as was roughly calculated, bowed down to adore Christ the Living God, raised up by the hands of His own Vicar on earth. Having got to the Communion, the Holy Father distributed the Holy Eucharist to a deputation of poor orphans from the institute of Tata Giovanni, who were received on the top steps of the altar; then, having come down, he communicated about one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen. It was a scene worth transmitting to canvas to see so many distinguished personages, in all uniforms, French, Austrian, German, English and American, kneeling and waiting until the Holy Father would give them communion. When Mass was over, the Pope, with his clear, sonorous voice, intoned the Te Deum, and the entire immense congregation took it up in one thundering response. Never since the day of the definition of the Immaculate Conception was such a Te Deum heard. The people sang with vehement enthusiasm. The illumination of the cupola was most successful. It is thought that there are about one hundred and thirty thousand strangers in Rome for the festivities, the majority this time being Italians. A photograph of the scene in St. Peter's was successfully taken just at the moment when the Holy Father was at the Lavabo. Further particulars in my next.—Catholic Journal.

☞Olive Logan, in her speech at the session of the Equal Rights association in Brooklyn, said: "I reject the trowsers with contempt and scorn. Men cut a sufficiently ridiculous figure in them themselves. The trouble is, they don't like their own costume, and are envious of our laces, jewelry, frills, and dresses. 'Trowers, forsooth! trowsers!' Shake not thy ridiculous garment at me. No, so long as we can have our silks, satins and shawls, we will repudiate your absurd bifurcated unwhisperables. Look at your swallow-tail coats, stove-pipe hats; and you wear your hair so short, some of you, that you look precisely like monkeys, and I don't wonder that one of your number has written a book showing that animal to be the father of his race."

SPAIN.—Invasion from France—An Army of Isabella's Adherents Ready to Cross the Border.—MADRID, May 20.—Dispatches have been received here, announcing that about 2,000 of the adherents of Queen Isabella, under Gassett and Pezuela, have assembled at Perpignan, a city in France on the Spanish frontier. At last accounts they were nearly ready to cross the border. The Government has taken the necessary steps to prevent such invasion, if possible.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR

Medicine for Dyspepsia, Headache Jaundice, Costiveness, Camp Dysentery, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fever, Nervousness, Chills, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood, Melancholy or Depression of Spirits.

Most of the ailments here enumerated have their origin in a diseased liver, which is the most prevalent affection in this country, and as in many cases the patient is not within the reach of a physician, it requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be active and safe. That such is the character of the SIMMONS REGULATOR there can be no doubt, which the testimony of hundreds will establish.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED

LIVER. Pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade is mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the foregoing symptoms appear. It is a purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitutions, and will keep the liver in healthy action if used properly.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose occasionally to keep the liver in healthy action.

Regulator For children complaining of colic, headache, or sick stomach a teaspoonful or more will give relief. Children, as well as adults, eat sometimes too much supper, or eat something which does not digest well, producing sour stomach, heart-burn, or restlessness; a good dose will give relief. This applies to persons of all ages.

Many persons, from eating too much, are restless at night. Such, in day time fidgety, wool-gathering, can't understand what they read, can't keep their thoughts on any one subject so as to reason well, or become fretful. One or two tablespoonful will give relief.

Jaundice.—Take enough Regulator after eating each meal to produce one full action from the bowels every day.

Pregnant ladies will find sure relief from their sickness, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, pain in stomach, restlessness, etc., etc.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA :::::::: MAY 25.

Our Late Nashville Visitors—Their Acknowledgments.

Atlanta Correspondence Nashville Banner.]

Nashville may be truly proud of these benevolent gentlemen and ladies, who leave for their homes to-morrow morning. For so appreciative of their talents and merits were the audiences before which they appeared in this city, that the Concerts, in view of the conduct and demeanor of the people, appeared more like parlor entertainments than public exhibitions. Not a single circumstance occurred on either occasion to mar the pleasure of any, or to shock the sensibilities of even the most fastidious as to the proprieties of life.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE AMATUERS.

ATLANTA, May 20, 1869.

The following paper, was read and unanimously adopted by the party of amatuer musicians and vocalists from Nashville, at a meeting held this evening, immediately after the close of their last Concert, viz:

The delegation of amateurs cannot return to their homes without giving public expression to the gratification they have experienced since their departure from Nashville; because they have been comfortably and luxuriantly provided for by the liberality of the officials of the Nashville and Chattanooga and Western and Atlantic Railroads, who furnished transportation free of charge, and because of the urbanity and politeness which have characterized the conductors under whose charge they have traveled; because of the liberal and polite tender of their magnificent sleeping-cars by Messrs. Pullman, Kimball and Ramsey; because of the elegant hospitality of the proprietors of the National Hotel at Atlanta, whose excellent appointments for the comfort of their guests are unsurpassed; because the City Council of Atlanta, through their Representative Committee, of whom Captain Sisson is Chairman, have treated them with distinguished consideration, unlooked for and unexpected, but the more appreciated in consideration of the spontaneous tender thereof, and the pleasure afforded the excursionists to testify to the evidences of thrift, enterprise and industry of the Phœnix-like and wonderfully growing city of Atlanta, which were every-where visible to them while being so courteously escorted through its widely extended limits.

To the officers and members of the First Baptist Church, upon whose invitation they visited Atlanta, to aid in the completion of the beautiful edifice which their Christian zeal projected, the excursionists would express their affectionate admiration, and give assurance that the pleasures of the trip have more than compensated them for the time and labor bestowed in lending a helping hand to the "laudable undertaking of building an house to the Lord."

To Professors Harmsden and Dencke, the amateurs of Atlanta, and the Sunday School children, their acknowledgements are due for the contribution they made to the success of the concerts.

To the Young Men's Library Association, who tendered the freedom of their reading-rooms and the use of their well-selected library, they would publicly express their thanks.

To Mr. Thompson, of the Ladies' Confectionery, who, without price, spread before them the luxuries of his elegant establishment, they would express their thanks and bear public testimony to his skill in his line of business, which he formerly pursued so acceptably both to ladies and gentlemen in Nashville.

To Messrs. Redwine & Fox, and Messrs. Pemberton, Wilson, Taylor & Co., who tendered the freedom of their soda fountains during the stay of the party in the city, they also return thanks, and their sojourn in Atlanta brief, as it has been, is full of memories of the kind attention of an hospitable people.

New Version of an Historical Incident.

SINGULAR REVELATION.—THE BLAIR MISSION TO THE CONFEDERATE CAPITAL.—A letter in the Wheeling Register, from Roanoke county, Virginia, contains the following remarkable statement:

While in Marion, Smyth county, a few days ago, I had the pleasure of several lengthy chats with Hon. Fayette McMullin. Mr. McMullin says that since the war he was one day in the President's house in Washington, conversing with Hon. F. P. Blair, Sr. Mr. Blair told him that soon after McMullin's "peace resolutions" had been introduced into the Confederate Congress, Mr. Lincoln, being extremely anxious to bring about a peace honorable alike to both sections of the country, and foreseeing and wishing to avoid the political consequences of the military subjugation of the South, sent him (Mr. Blair) to Richmond to confer with Mr. Davis and learn what arrangement of the difficulties could be made. He was passed through the lines of the contending armies and conducted to Mr. Davis' house in Richmond. After a long conversation with Mr. Davis and other prominent gentlemen for whom Mr. Davis sent, and for whom Mr. Blair inquired, Mr. Davis said that he had no proposition to make. Mr. Blair then proposed that Gen. Lee's army be marched into Mexico against the French; that Gen. Grant would follow and support the movement; that the united armies would drive out Maximilian; and then the Southern States should name their own terms of reconstruction, everything short of independence being guaranteed. At Mr. Davis' request this proposition was made in writing, and, after some consultation and reflection, was signed and accepted by him. Mr. Blair returned to Washington, and Mr. Lincoln was highly delighted with the success of the negotiation. It was in the hope of consummating this arrangement that Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward met the "peace commissioners," Hon. Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, at Fortress Monroe; [illegible] Lincoln's absence, but there, to Mr. Lincoln, the committee declared that [illegible] had been instructed by Mr. Davis to insist upon the independence of the South, and would listen to no other proposal.—And thus the whole affair came to a most lame and impotent conclusion."

Such is the substance of the account related to Gov. McMullin by Mr. Blair. Mr. McMullin says that he asked and obtained Mr. Blair's permission to make the statement public, but he had refrained from giving it publicly pending Mr. Davis's trial, fearing lest it might in some way prejudice his case.

☞ It is estimated that seven-tenths of all adult ailments proceed from diseased and torpid liver. The biliary secretions of the liver overflowing into the stomach, poison the entire system, and exhibit the above symptoms. After a long research, we are able to present the most remarkable cure for these horrid nightmare of diseases the world has ever produced. Within one year over six hundred and forty thousand persons have taken PLANTATION BITTERS, and not an instance of complaint has come to our knowledge. It is the most effectual tonic and agreeable stimulant, suited to all conditions of life. Inquire of your Druggist in regard to it.

SYMPATHY REPELLED.—Dryden, on the night when one of his plays was damned, was taking his walk from the theater, when he was met by a coxcomb acquaintance, who said: "What, Dryden, my boy! upon my soul I feel for you. Can there be anything more shocking to a poet's feelings than a damned play?" "Yes, sir; a d—d fool," replied the poet.

☞ An English minor was sued for breach of promise and judgment was claimed on the ground that a minor could contract for necessaries. The court, however, very properly decided that a wife was not necessary for an infant.

☞ Anna Dickinson is said to be worth $100,000.
